If you find other combinations, or want to report which codes work for your set, let me know and I'll add them here. Reminder that while some of these codes may help you get into service mode, the main Mitsubishi TV Service Modes page may not apply to your TV. Two others that I know of are service menus for the CT21AM2(A) and the xxxx7 (2001 models).

The Mitsubishi Outlander FCM Service Required warning light indicated a fault in the Forward Collision Mitigation System (FCM). This may be due to an overheated sensor. The sensor is located in front of the rear-view mirror inside the car. When parked in direct sunlight for example, the sensor can become extremely hot.
