Dawn is a normal suburban high school senior living Saratoga Springs, New York. Her father is an expert in legends and myths and is a professor at the nearby college. She is a good looking popular girl with a boring mundane life until a new girl moves into the neighborhood. Grace is shy and looks like she stepped out of the 1940's and makes quite an impression with the kids at school. Dawn decides early on to befriend her even though she will lose her social status and takes a seat at the Nerd Table. Grace tends to be strange and keeps to herself except when around Dawn and with Dawn's help Grace blossoms. After Brandon, the captain of the football team asks Dawn out her life becomes a roller coaster of emotions and things become even more twisted after Grace's brother Max arrives and the two foster a relationship that thrusts her into a dark world where nothing is as it seems.

Raised in a family of four, Kylila thinks she has the most ideal family. After her village has been burnt down, her deep, dark secret in her life begins to unfold. Having the powers to save or destroy the world, which would Kylila choose?

That girl was Johanna Spyri, who grew up to write books like "Heidi" and other tales of Switzerland -- of people who made their scant living farming and sheep raising, of life on the mountains and the challenges of life among the Alps. She wrote of their sorrows and their joys; of children and her love for them; and this tale will share all of that with you . . .

The present volume contains the proceedings of the Seventh International East-West Symposium of New Testament Scholars in Moscow 2016. Its contributions are devoted to different aspects of the question of the relation between history and theology in New Testament and extracanonical Gospel literature. They deal with problems regarding the impact of critical historical approaches for New Testament theology, the relation between the Gospels' claim for truth and historical facts, Orthodox receptions of the Gospel literature, and the presentation of "the" Gospel in Byzantine liturgy.
