As Scrabble pros are familiar with, there's no greater feeling in the game than being able to use your entire deck for a word in a single turn. Commonly known as a Scrabble "bingo," you can add 50 points on top of what the word would normally score. So keep your eyes peeled! A move like this could decide the winner.

Scrabble hacks that will help you win any game - Insider

According to Hasbro, the makers of Scrabble, "an arrangement of words on the Scrabble game board is said to be 'open' when there are many places to play high-scoring words." As you strategically place longer words on the board to score more points and reach bonus squares -- or as you play a seven-letter word and score a bingo -- you'll also provide more ways for your opponent to make masterful plays.
